

DISCOVERY BAY KIDS CAMPS

Fun for young kids &
a break for you.

Art of Etiquette/Cooking Camp

This fun class, which combines cooking and etiquette, provides your child with an increased appreciation for good manners. Children are taught the art of introductions, hand-shaking, how to set a table, basic table manners, and how to prepare tasty treats (which they get to sample). They will learn fun recipes that can be repeated easily enough at home. It also includes a reference workbook for each student.

Theatre Camps

Through theatre, children are free to explore and express themselves. They are encouraged to work together in a safe and welcoming environment where there are no wrong answers or competition, only the chance to try on being someone else and discover a little more of themselves and others in the process. In these camps, children are introduced to singing, acting, and dancing through imaginative theatre exercises, games, and songs. Parents are invited to a performance on the last day of class.
