AZAM KHAN

(of the legendary Khan squash dynasty)

Azam has managed the squash program at PRO Sports Club since 1991. Playing squash competitively since the age of 16, Azam was one of four players representing the U.S. from 1985-1991.

Following in the footsteps of his father, the legendary Yusef Khan, Azam has developed many successful players including Shabana Khan, Latasha Khan, and Kristen Lange, all who have gone to win the highest honors in their division, the Women's National titles and the Junior National titles respectively.

Azam is passionate about squash and enjoys sharing his knowledge through teaching and coaching players of all abilities from children to adults.
